

The Paul Anderson Memorial Park

Etch Your Name in Toccoa History Brick Program (2008) .....

Take advantage of this special opportunity to leave an enduring memento on a personalized brick in the Paul Anderson Memorial Park in Toccoa, GA. Each brick sold will help us to defray the cost of developing the park to honor one of Toccoa's most famous citizens.

Construction on the park has already begun with the completion dated slated for late winter/early spring 2008. A life-sized bronze statue of Paul Anderson, a fully-modern beautiful fountain, winding concrete and brick walkways, annual and perennial beds and planters encircled with decorate fence and posts, the park will be the pride of Toccoa. "Etch your name in Toccoa History" by completing the attached application today. A personalized brick in the Paul Anderson memorial park is a great gift idea for holidays, birthdays, graduations and more.

The new 2008 Brick program will include spacing for three (3) lines of text on each brick at a cost of $150.00 per brick. These bricks will be placed at the tip of the park, nearest the Special Recognition Monuments (information on the Special Recognition Monument Program – higher levels of giving and support - can be found on the other side.)
